Community resource table are open to either Non-Profit or For-Profit community organization or agency to share information and services during our annual African American Health Empowerment Expo. The goal is to reach out to residents within East Contra Costa County to create awareness in the areas of Hypertension, Diabetes, Weight Management, Prostate / Breast Cancer Awareness and Emotional Wellness. The African American Health Empowerment Collaborative is seeking support and partnership from community agencies and businesses to join us in assisting with providing information and resources directly or indirectly related to these areas. This is an opportunity for you and your organization to share knowledge and services to promote individual, family and community wellness. This is a no-cost event, so please no retail exchange. We are asking that all community resource vendors attend and staff their tables for the entire event.

Cost to participate in the 2016 African American Health Empowerment Expo is listed below for Non-Profit and For-Profit Organizations or Agencies in the Resource Pavilion. Cost would include one table, two chairs, lunch for two (as available) announcement of your organization or agency during the health expo. Sorry no refunds would be provided.
